MONDAY, APRIL 10, 1890.

National Republican Convention.

A National Convention of the Republican party will meet at Chicago, on Thursday, the 30 day of June next, at 10 o'clock noon, for the nomination of candidates to be supported for President and Vice-President at the next election. The Republican party will co-operate with them in supporting the nominees of the party are invited to send delegates from each Congressional District, four at large from each State, two from each Territory, and two from the District of Columbia to represent them in the Convention.

J. D. CAMERON, Chairman National Committee. THOMAS B. KROGH, Secretary.

THE OLD GANG.

All of responsibility that is left in what was once the Democratic party of Maine must shudder with disgust at the evidence of how completely it has fallen under control of the most notorious of the counting-out conspirators; and the eagerness with which the long-time Democratic organ in this city exalts the Commission organizers to the leadership of the campaign for the coming campaign is enough to make any decent citizen ashamed to be caught in such company.

The Republicans could ask for nothing more satisfactory to them than the prominence and leadership assumed by the tricksters whose names are a stench in the nostrils of the people. The very features who planned and carried out the monstrous villainy of overturning an election by systematic fraud, have got such a grip on the Fusion machine that they cannot be shaken off, but on the contrary assume arrogant and shameless control of both ends of the campaign.

Only last Wednesday the Tabulating Copartners, Garcelon, Fogg, Chase, P. W. Hill and others met in this city with Torrey and Redmond and Ladd, to superintend a so-called meeting of the Democratic State Committee which decided to call a Democratic State Convention at Portland June 1st.

On Friday the same gang, Fogg, Chase, Hill, Swan and others, met in Portland with Perry, Fogg and Sawyer, to superintend a so-called meeting of the Greenback State Committee, which decided to call a Greenback State Convention in Bangor June 1st.

The Tabulators have captured the whole Fusion concern and propose to take the leadership recognized. While the whole country is yet ringing with the indignation of the decent men of all parties at the sneak-thief rascality of the Garcelon-Fogg gang in Maine, they come forward and fasten themselves upon the shoulders of the Democratic and Greenback parties, and insist that justification of the perjury, forgery and other crimes of the counting-out conspiracy must be made a chief issue in the coming campaign.

We cordially welcome the issue in that shape, and the people of this State will be equally eager to show what they think of a coalition that has the hardihood to appeal to them under the leadership of Garcelon, Fogg, Chase, Hill, Swan & Co.

SHAMEFUL INSULT.

The Bangor Commercial of Saturday evening expressed a wish that we should publish one of its editorials glorifying the copartners: Fogg, Chase, Hill, Swan and others, in a column "give it the widest publicity." We have no more space to waste on that trash, but we will copy another and shorter editorial from the same issue of that paper, to show the shamelessness with which the Central-st. organ of Fusion assails and insults the most numerous Christian denomination in this country. Here is what the newspaper champion of Pillbury, Garcelon & Co. has to say of the Methodist Church, which in 1870 had in the United States 21,357 houses of worship with 6,235,200 sittings:

Bishop Bowman thinks the Methodist preachers of to-day, are less pious than their predecessors. Garcelon & Co. the pastors spend more time on their knees.

There would be a great saving in cost and expenses of our criminal courts, and less material to the number of those professional gentlemen who are now hoarding in State institutions at the public expense. We have wondered at the frequent backslidings of the cause of it. Whether we have discovered it or not, we have generally found that class of men belonging to the party of great moral ideas. Remember, remember, bloody-stirred scoundrels—like some we wot of not a thousand miles from this city, who believe in the "gospel of the Kingdom," preaching the gospel of Blaineism instead of Him whom they hypocritically pretend to worship, and who drive from the church of God, send heading into the arms of the Republican party—Bangor Commercial, April 17.

THE PRESIDENTIAL FIELD.

The following letter was written from Washington by E. V. Smalley, staff correspondent of the New York Tribune, a few days before the Iowa Convention:

The enormous number of their candidate will have in the Iowa Convention shows, they say, the drift of opinion in the West, and exerts a strong influence on the neighboring States of Illinois, Wisconsin and Minnesota. They claim that Grant will not get a single vote from the Western States, and that the only chance he has of being elected is by the vote of the Southern States. They claim that Grant will be elected by the vote of the Southern States, and that the only chance he has of being elected is by the vote of the Southern States.

Everybody now regards Illinois as the key to the situation. If General Grant can secure its united delegation he can go into the Convention with a fair chance of success. If he cannot, his chances are hopeless. It could count upon a solid Southern vote he could spare half the delegation from the State, but it is now plain that the plan of solidifying the South for the third time project and uniting it with New York, Pennsylvania and Illinois, has miscarried.

Blaine will get the vote of the Southern States, and will be elected by the vote of the Southern States. The Southern States will be the key to the situation. If General Grant can secure its united delegation he can go into the Convention with a fair chance of success. If he cannot, his chances are hopeless. It could count upon a solid Southern vote he could spare half the delegation from the State, but it is now plain that the plan of solidifying the South for the third time project and uniting it with New York, Pennsylvania and Illinois, has miscarried.

The Investigation Still Progresses.
NEW YORK, April 17. The reporter of the New York Times says that the grand jury has given the names of the parties who furnished him with the information of an alleged plan to "fix White-Stock." The recorder states that the "chips" referred to in the Times was known to him from the first, but it had been so slight that he did not feel compelled to summon any witnesses relative thereto.

DEMOCRATIC DELEGATES.
STRAUSBERG, April 17. A large number of delegates to the Democratic convention have arrived. The Courier carries the delegates as follows: Anti-Tilden, 27; Tilden, 149; Doubtful, 18. It is claimed that Edwin H. Cady, the Governor, has abandoned Tilden for Seymour.

VIRGINIA.
Destructive Fire.
NORFOLK, April 18. An incendiary fire at 11 o'clock this morning destroyed several stores and dwellings. The fire spread along the line of railroad from Lynchburg to Norfolk. Several buildings were burned in Appomattox County and in the city of Norfolk. The fire was caused by a man named John Smith, who was arrested and charged with arson.

LOCAL MATTERS.
RAVENS REFORM CLUB. A good sized audience greeted the Ravens Reform Club at their annual meeting held at the City Hall. The exercises opened with the reading of the Scriptures by Mrs. Palmer of the Crusade, followed with prayer by Dr. Lincoln. Barnes remarks were made by President Montgomery, Messrs. Westcott, Randall and Seavey of the Club. Mr. Eastle, of Dixfield, made an earnest appeal in behalf of temperance that was heartily applauded by the audience. The meeting closed by the choir singing an appropriate selection.

PLEASANT YESTERDAY.
Pleasant yesterday. Vessels are now loading with ice in this port. See Charles York & Co's. new advertisement. Col. Robert Ingersoll will lecture in Portland soon. It is reported that river drivers are scarce on this river now. The cutter Hugh McCulloch came up as far as Hampden Friday. There was a conjunction of Jupiter and Mars yesterday morning. Hon. J. D. Hopkins, of Ellsworth, is visiting relations in this city. The weather was very disagreeable Saturday as a mixture of rain and snow prevailed. Mrs. Crossman attended the anniversary exercises of the temperance society in Clinton yesterday. A little girl was thrown from a carriage on Exchange street Saturday, but escaped serious injury. We are indebted to Mamie Groat, of Exeter, for some of the first flowers of the season. Rev. Mr. Pay preached at the Third Church yesterday. There was a Sabbath School concert in the evening. The Greenback State Convention for the nomination of a candidate for Governor will be held in Bangor June first. Capt. Sylvanus Kiek, one of our old and highly respected citizens died at a late hour last night, after a long sickness. The buildings of Harrison Frost, of Matville, were burned last week. Loss about a thousand dollars; fully insured. We were pleased to see our respected fellow-citizen, Geo. S. C. Dow, Esq., riding out last week, after his severe illness. Some extensive improvements are being made on the grounds around the Fort Point Hotel. The house will be opened to the public in June. Rev. Roger S. Howard, for many years principal of the Girls' High School in this city, died in Greenfield, Mass., last month at the age of seventy-two years. The Governor's Council met this afternoon at four o'clock. The subject of taxation of Railroad and Telegraph Companies will be considered at this session. There will be a rehearsal of "Pinafore" this evening at Mr. Moody's room, commencing at nine o'clock. Mr. McQuown is anxious that all taking part should be present. The firm of Wiswell & Baker have dissolved. The business will be continued at the old stand by Mr. Wiswell, and Mr. J. S. Baker will continue to reside over the custom department. The new pastor of the Pine street Methodist church, Rev. Mr. Apple, of this city, did not arrive in Bangor until last week and Rev. Mr. Hamlin supplied the pulpit of that church yesterday. The managers of the Pinafore Company have decided not to visit Orono on account of the expense, therefore those in that place who desire to see the opera will have to avail themselves of the special train to Oldtown Thursday evening. Collector Smith has received a letter from the Secretary of the Treasury, dated April 16, approving his recommendation of the appointment of Frank A. Garney as Inspector in place of Herman Bartlett, removed. GOOD SICK. Saturday Messrs. Wiggin, Small & Williams displayed at their office, a new and beautiful sign, bearing the words, "The Franklin Fire Insurance Co., of Philadelphia, Penn., established 1829." It is painted upon glass 30x36 inches, and enclosed in a handsome frame of black walnut and gilt. It is the work of A. B. Marston, of this city, and is one of the finest we have seen. A HANDY MAN. We have received from Messrs. B. B. Russell & Co., 37 Cornhill, Boston, a handsome pair of the State of Maine 25x38 inches, showing rivers, mountains, lakes, and towns correctly represented, colored by hand, varnished and mounted on rollers. It is just the thing for a handy reference map for office or library and is so cheap that everybody can have one. Sent post-paid for fifty cents each. LITERARY MEETING. The Hammond Street Congregational Literary Society held its closing meeting for the season on Friday evening at the residence of J. Albert Davis, Esq., of Orono. No pains were spared in the arrangement and carrying out of the programme, and the instruction and enjoyment derived from this and the preceding meetings will doubtless occasion their early renewal another season. BAD WEATHER FOR THE STEAMERS. On account of the bad weather the steamer Katandina did not arrive in this city until half-past ten o'clock yesterday morning. She left Boston at the usual time Friday night and put in two hours at the Harbor, where she remained several hours and then came along as far as Belfast, where she remained until yesterday morning. The Cambridge on her way to Boston remained in Portland Harbor Friday night. WOMAN'S BOARD OF MISSIONS. At the annual meeting of the Bangor Auxiliary of Woman's Board of Missions the following officers were elected: Mrs. J. S. Sewall, County Vice President; Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. Emma L. Dupen; Directors, Mrs. L. B. Sewall, Mrs. H. L. Crosby, Mrs. S. L. B. Jones, Mrs. G. W. F. Gidney, Mrs. C. G. Sterns, Mrs. H. B. Brown and Mrs. F. B. Denio. We shall publish the Secretary's annual report in our next issue. COLBY UNIVERSITY NOTES. The seniors have secured the following rare musical talent for Commencement: Mme. Cartier Bohrer, grand gottliep harp soloist; now on a visit from London, England; the Schubert quartette, of Boston, and Miss Henriette Beebe, of New York, as soprano. There will also be the full Germania orchestra, of Boston. It is evident that this unusually large number of first class musicians could be secured only at lavish expense. A rare musical treat may be expected. MAINE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY. The trustees of the Maine Agricultural Society adjourned their session at Portland Saturday at noon. Col. Ricker will take the place of Mr. Garcelon as head of the horse department. Mr. C. F. Libby the ticket department in place of Col. Ricker. Mr. Garcelon will have charge of the stock department, and Mr. Hight of the hall. President Prince will be general Superintendent of the grounds. The premiums for trotting will amount to about $2,800. The general premium list will amount to between five and six thousand dollars, a slight increase. The fair will be held September 21st and continue four days. The Fomologian Society and Daughters' Association will unite with the Society in holding their exhibit. It was voted to postpone the location of the fair for thirty days to enable cities to make proposals.
